

Lunch and learn presentations:

Our lunch and learn sessions are designed to provide staff with a brief overview of the topic and an opportunity to ask questions of an expert Relationship Manager who has experience of supporting companies in developing a flexible and family friendly culture. Our current topics are listed below.

Title: Top Tips for Flexible Working

Audience – employees and line managers, and SME's

Creating a culture of flexible and hybrid working is down to everyone. This session will look at how staff can contribute to this agenda and play their own part.

- ✓ Tips on communication
- ✓ What works best and where
- ✓ Sharing the load and gaining support from team members

Title: Team Protocols

Audience – employees and line managers, and SME's

Ensuring a team is functioning well is the way to success.

Another practical session designed to review the ways in which a team work together and with other stakeholders to ensure high engagement and productivity. The areas we will review include communication, availability, tech, and environment and how the team will need to work.

Title: Best Practice Support for working parents and carers

Audience – HR or D&I teams, or line managers and employees, and SME's

Support to working parents and carers is vital to a vibrant and engaged workforce. This session will focus on our knowledge of best practice and how to support staff during their journeys to parenthood or caring, along with some expert tips on flexible working.

Costs:

For non-members – £535 plus VAT per session, and a charge of £535 plus VAT will be made if you wish to record the session.

Booking three sessions would be discounted to £1,300 plus VAT.

Members - free to our Dynamic members.

For Aligned and Core members, the sessions are charged at a discounted rate of £400 plus VAT and a charge of £400 plus VAT will be made if you wish to record the session.

Booking three sessions would be discounted to £1,100 plus VAT.

Relationship Management Team and contact information:

Joanne Waterworth, Alice Hooley, Diana Gilmore, and Susanne Woodhams. For generic questions on the above, please contact your Relationship Manager, or employers@workingfamilies.org.uk