We're proud to share that [Company Name] has joined the Working Families membership, a community dedicated to helping employers to embed flexible working and enhance family-friendly support in the workplace.

Becoming a Working Families member marks an important step in our ongoing commitment to ensuring our people feel valued and supported. Through our membership we'll gain access to:

- Expert resources, toolkits, and best practice guidance on all areas of flexible and family-friendly working
- A network of like-minded organisations sharing ideas and experiences

Joining Working Families is a practical way to strengthen our policies, challenge barriers, and continue building a workplace culture where wellbeing is prioritised and different ways of working are embraced.

Thank you for being part of this journey with us.
